

21 Mar. 52

Arthur M. Dewey, versatile citizen of Cleveland and Willoughby, will give a color-film-lecture at The Cleveland Museum of Art, in cooperation with The Garden Center of Greater Cleveland on the L.E.Holden Fund for Outdoor Art title of lecture "Rainbow Countries of South America," Sunday, March 23 at 3 p.m.

He made this film on his most recent trip to the southwestern hemisphere. He has been everywhere in the world, excepting New Zealand, where he will travel soon. An industrialist, Mr. Dewey is treasurer of The Joseph & Feiss Company, and a director of on the boards of many other firms. He is a trustee of the Garden Center, the Cleveland Bird Club, The ~~Nat~~ National Audubon Society and the National Geographic Society. He lives in Willoughby.